

A REPENTANT CRIMINAL.

Singular Letter from Michael Kennedy, the Robber—He Confesses His Guilt, and Wishes to be Saved from a Felon's Grave.

From the Chicago Republicans. Michael Kennedy, one of the most notorious criminals of this city, whose career during the past few years has been marked by numerous offenses against the law, was lately sentenced to ten years' imprisonment in the State Penitentiary. His operations were well known. During his three weeks in the County Jail he partially confessed a number of crimes he had committed. Being a victim to consumption, and not expecting to long survive his life of out-lawry, he has become repentant. The following letter, written to the Deputy Superintendent of Police, reveals much of the inner feeling of the man, which, had he not been detected in his crime, might never have been brought to light.

Chicago, Oct. 21, 1867.—Captain John Nelson, Deputy Superintendent of Police—Sir:—I am induced to write you, owing to the peculiar circumstances that have within the last few weeks surrounded me. You will be aware ere this reaches you that I have been sentenced to State's Prison on two charges, for the term of ten years. I have no complaint to make against any one, nor would I ask for sympathy, only that I believe I am almost friendless, and slowly but surely dying of a disease that must prove fatal. It has been long my duty to detect and prosecute criminals like myself, yet the treatment I have ever received from your hands, and those connected with you, must ever command my respect. As I have said, I am sentenced to the Penitentiary for ten years. As you know, my life at the longest cannot be more than one year, since my last confinement I have suffered much, and thought much of the past, and the remorse of a guilty conscience tells me there is more in the future than in my reckless past. I have thought of, and what little of life is left should be devoted to a better purpose, to atone for the past. I do not wish to die in the future, as I have done, if I turned loose to-morrow. What I would wish to say is this:—I go to the State's Prison with a firm determination to be a better man. I have not long to live, but when my last few days should draw nigh, I do not wish to be buried as a felon, for the sake of relatives whom I have already filled with sorrow. I would ask your assistance—your sympathy so far as this: if at such a time an application should be made for you to assist in saving me from a felon's grave, that you will look upon it favorably. Believe me ever respectfully yours, MICHAEL KENNEDY.

—A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat says:—"General Harney, forty-two years ago, at the treaty on the Little Missouri, with High Black Wolf, adopted the boy of the latter as his son. That boy at the preliminary interview held today was Black Kettle, the head chief of the Cheyennes. He has a fine head and a very sagacious look. The General brought him down some fine presents, and Black Kettle pays the General profound deference, which will be turned to account in the approaching council."
